Hi to all of you again.

So, when do we say hi ?, first thing you login for the day, every time you refresh (every 5 seconds), is it limited to 1 per day ?.

the truth is, i love you all, so the Hi is appropriate.

it was was not me meeting you there, but, i would have probalbly reacted the same as that person.

there was once a guy who was not too knowledgeable about religion and he would put up a tree as well as a menorah during December.

one day the menorah tipped over and burned the tree.

he said "there seems to be a message here but i am not sure what it is"
