

Free Books! GYE Hand Book, Windows of the Soul, The Light of Ephraim

Posted by yitzi.26 - 22 Nov 2010 19:12

With Hashem's help we are giving out free books. Guard sent out an email blast about a week ago or so and we have received many replies. If anyone here hasn't read the email. Please PM me and let me know which books you are interested in, and so we can get it shipped out to you.

The people who have received the book "The Light of Ephraim" I would appreciate if you would please comment on it so other members can get a better feeling about it. I personally have benefited so much from this sefer, my words would not do justice!

Thanks!

Kol Tuv

Moderator's Note: GYE thanks Yitzi for this very generous offer. Everyone who receives (or has already received) one or more free books is strongly encouraged to make a donation to GYE. The recommended donation is $10-$15 per book received, or whatever you are able to afford.

Dear Yitzi,

This is such a generous offer and Zikui HaRabbim.

Are you having the books bound?

Yitzi has already sent me Light of Ephraim and I'm finding it very good and helpful so far.
Thanks!

About the book : It contains some very deep kabbalistic insights into the nature of sexual aveiras while tying in lots of other areas of Torah and general hashkafa. It has helped me understand why some statements seem so scary and out of proportion, like how to understand when the Zohar says that there is no teshuva for wasted seed and other such statements. It is written in the form of a dialogue and story which keeps it also fun and gripping, and not too heavy, despite the fact that the sugyas are very deep. I am only about 1/3 of the way through, but I would certainly recommend it to anyone who wants to understand the deeper kabbalistic insights on sexual matters as well as other topics such as moshiach.
