

Where I'm at

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 16 Jul 2009 19:45

To whom it may concern,

My name is Uri. I live in the jerusalem area and i am a sex and love addict. This took me a long time to come to terms with, to say the least. But that we'll get to in a second.

I am finishing now my third year in beis medrash. While i have had success in my learning b'h, i have a source of shame and anguish that has caused me great depression on a constant basis. I lived (live really) two lives; my yeshiva/religious life which is the source of much admiration and pride from my parents and rebbeim. And then there is my "secret life", where I spend time ranging from 10 minutes a day to almost full off days fantasizing and worse acting out of all sorts. I feel like the worlds biggest hypocrite. It bothers me even more cause i find sincerity and honesty of the utmost importance, and i have to stand and watch myself trample all over these traits. After several years of therapy i have recently come to the realization that basically all of my "major" issues have come from this place. I have major issues in getting close to people and keeping friends once i feel that they know me too well. i have a hard time sitting by myself due to my uncomfortability of sitting with a unsatiable sex addict (however ironic that might sound). The need creeps up all too often, followed by a crazy need to satisfy it. There are several paths to this: porn, masturbation, contact with a sexual girl, and, strangely enough, eating out at restaurants, but that we'll get to a diff time. Anyway, there is one main girl, as there always is. we have had the weirdest on and off relationship, to say the least. the jealousy and overprotection i had with her is still a shock to me even. anyway im tired so i shall continue this rebberebber=dov

chassidus IS ecstasy

yes many confuse it with kugel driving big Denalis wearing "sheefa tashen"

no no no this is just some of the side shows

chassidud IS ecstasy

It catapults a person to a level higher than the mundane at that poin he or she is not pulled down by gravity!!

chassidus gives one the good feeling in accomplishing one role in life that feeling can hit the YH further than #44 ever hit a kniedel

and there is no need to wait till October

see the tifers shloma in the EN

V.atta right now

hairpin turn at 75MPH!!!

i'm loling while rolling on the floor right now :D :D :D

but seriously, Uri, i don't know what to tell you.

did you try deleting her number from your phone, deleting her email address from your computer, telling your family not to talk about her?

i know that the pull is really strong, but once you have no way of contacting her would that help at all?

or what if you just said that you would never be beyichud. make that your kabbala, and then you wont be able to do anything, right?

whatever you do- Hatzlacha rabba, and may Hashem give you the clarity to do what is right.

Dear Reb b:

A groisen dahnk tzu dier, rebbe. Tzu dier, in Fahr Vus? Mahne vahb ut gezogt tzu mier, ohz iz a ) , yeider yohr.

Whew! that was tough! What I was trying to say is that I owe you and GYE a lot, for something it never occurred to me would happen:

My wife told me a few days ago that life with me has become more pleasant over the past few months, especially. She said that I am not so darn serious all the time! Imaging that! Me serious!
Haha ha. Anyhow, I obviously tend to the overserious side and I believe you more that anyone else here has helped me chill.

May the MeKorr of all Simcha (and appropriate chilling!) bless you in every way, rebbe!

NNSAMD!

Dov,

I must say I admire you greatly.and what I wanted you ask you for a long time was this question.All of us here,including myself try to be honest with ourselves and stare at our faults without flinching and do what we can to improve.

But you are the most brutally person here.You may not feel this way but to me, your courage is absolutely amazing.How most of us would try to block out the dark areas of our lives and try to flee from it or bury it or not deal with it head on and yet you bravely talk about all your struggles in a very open way and help alot of people with your brutally honest assessment of yourself.How do you do this?

I know I strive to see myself as I really am,with all the ugly things included,yet I am very far from having those pure clear lenses that have no rosy or colored tint to it at all,the ones you have, Dov, are crystal clear.I sometime fail both by underestimating or overestimating myself at different times causing myself alot of grief

Dov,this honesty that you have is something that you should feel good about.You have earned it.It is your privilege.It is a badge of honor that you could carry and it will not harm you.and that is one most important thing I can learn from you.I try very hard to do this but very often I fall short

I was thinking the same thing. I just didn't have the guts to say so. I was afraid of being criticized. Thanks E.L. for opening this up.

Even if you are not ready to get married now, but believe she is the girl for you, be careful not to burn your bridges.
