

Where I'm at

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 16 Jul 2009 19:45

To whom it may concern,

My name is Uri. I live in the Jerusalem area and I am a sex and love addict. This took me a long time to come to terms with, to say the least. But that we'll get to in a second.

I am finishing now my third year in Beis Medrash. While I have had success in my learning b'h, I have a source of shame and anguish that has caused me great depression on a constant basis. I lived (live really) two lives; my yeshiva/religious life which is the source of much admiration and pride from my parents and rebbeim. And then there is my "secret life", where I spend time ranging from 10 minutes a day to almost full off days fantasizing and worse acting out of all sorts. I feel like the world's biggest hypocrite. It bothers me even more because I find sincerity and honesty of the utmost importance, and I have to stand and watch myself trample all over these traits. After several years of therapy I have recently come to the realization that basically all of my "major" issues have come from this place. I have major issues in getting close to people and keeping friends once I feel that they know me too well. I have a hard time sitting by myself due to my uncomfortability of sitting with a unsatiable sex addict (however ironic that might sound). The need creeps up all too often, followed by a crazy need to satisfy it. There are several paths to this: porn, masturbation, contact with a sexual girl, and, strangely enough, eating out at restaurants, but that we'll get to a different time. Anyway, there is one main girl, as there always is. We have had the weirdest on and off relationship, to say the least. The jealousy and overprotection I had with her is still a shock to me even. Anyway I'm tired so I shall continue this

Uri, you may not get what he is saying here, but I am absolutely nuts about the "deleted expletive" thing. Maybe it's because it's getting late... ;D

But seriously, in essence, Mr RA Machine seems to be recommending that you do a gratitude list and start practicing living with it in the background.

Personally, I reserve the making of gratitude lists for when I am going out of my mind and can't sleep (after about an hour) or when I feel too nutty to be safe alone, which I am. Those times are fewer and farther between lately, BH!

Now, if I lived in Israel, I'd just call you, RA Machine and the rest of this goofy chevra and have one of those parties you were talking about, I guess. I'd even bring my tricycle. And I'd bring a sealed box of blended and denatured expletives for you, RA Machino!

This Uri guy is unreal.

when i saw you wrote it!
I'm not the most gushing complimentary person around, but in all honesty I've never seen a person spit out poems and songs at this rate. It's not normal.

His battle against the Yetzah Hara, that's been putting his audience on a roller coaster, I getting a bit sick of all these twists and turns, B'H it appears the worst of the drops are over and we are steadily climbing a hill with no top in sight.

B'Hatzlacha Uri

I didn't want to say it,...

But now that you mentioned it..

It's amazing how fast he went from thinking he was sane to joining the rest of us lunatics i.e.
FLAKE

i never pretended to be sane...sanity is a full time job in this world that is always changing...i already have a full time job....but there is a big difference between a raging lunatic, such as myself, and a sappy flake...i wish i can give you an example of a sappy flake but i dont know any...never met a one...no siree...there are no sappy flakes here, just us chickens...
