

Ki Nafalti , Gam Kamti

Posted by ben durdayah - 30 Dec 2010 08:14

:(Although I've had my ups and downs over the years, and some long streaks of abstinence from any P or M, I never got off the roller coaster. Not that I think that I'm the most far gone person here as far as the quality and quantity of the shmutz, still I know that this is an addiction that never left me and never will if I do nothing about it.

This morning i thought of a mashal (someone else might have used it already, but for me it was a moment of clarity from heaven): A temporary bout with the YH about lust and P etc. is like a strep throat -take your antibiotics, drink fluids, rest up and it'll go away; if you don't catch the bacteria again -you're cured, and it's gone. But when the struggle for kedusha keeps on being just that, and with the slightest slip -you feel that you've lost control and your actions show that even years of self restraint didn't do the job (like ridin' a bicycle -ya never forget how to; same thing goes for sewage surfing...) that my friends is like Rachmana Litzlan Lo Aleinu V'lo Aleichem 'Yennerr Machla', and not the kind that attacks at first a specific organ or is operable; rather like the kinds of Yenner Machla in the blood -the best they can do is put it in remission, but it's there to stay -and when Chalila V'chas it's active -there's no limit to the damage it can do and the places that it will show up in. Same goes for addiction to Shmutz.

What's the point of this whole tirade? ... to be continued in the next installment (because it's too hard to type without seeing what your doing and I've filled the window and now it's dancing the Hora and making me dizzy...).

in my yeshiva days the shtarke learners would go to sleep for the 12 hours of nitel and wake up afterward to learn. i.e. go to sleep as early as possible and wake up at 1-2-3am and learn till shachris

That's the Chasam Soifer's mehalech with Nittel.

I told my wife I was thinking of doing that, but she said it would Altz be oifen cheshbon fin Freitag.

So I'm filling out some forms that have been waiting for my attention, my shvigger's hanging out here with my Rebbitzen, and when she clears the area -Maybe I'll do the silver L'kuved Shabbos, Sponga the 'Salon' and set the table to save time tommorrow.

B"H life isn't boring even nittel. I might even go to sleep early so that i can get up fartugs to say Tehillim LeKuved Yetzias Mitzrayim.

But in the meantime I'm here and ready to roll.

(I wonder where I can get Woodford here in the Holy Land...I'm starting to develop a taste for it!)

No luck with shvigger jokes by me guys....

Be'Emas she's a huge Tzadekes.....

My shver on the other hand makes up for her with ribis d'ribis!!!! And I'm not even kidding.

The only reason I may not have to say Tehillim for Kapuras Avoinos is 'cause my shvigger has the whole world in mind when she says Tehillim, Shir HaShirim, Perek Shira (there are your black dogs and elephants).

Some shviggers are a banana liquer, some are moonshine, my shvigger is pure Woodford.

Now my wife on the other hand sort of takes after my shver.....

Choolilah, especially because the shoresh of ?????? is really Aramish ?????!!!

Nuhr Vus, my wife takes a bit after her father who isn't the easiest sort of guy (dus haist, voos er tracht -dus is dus, and ver s'tracht anderesh is a Meshiginer. Frimmer fun mir is stam a meshiggener, Mehr modern past duch nisht -Pinkt Git, dus bin ich. etc.etc.) Not only that, but it seems that even though he did other shidduchim mit chitz la'aretz -it seems like he was mekaneh my Tatteh who wasn't wealthy, but had mesudardike parnussah which my shver didn't. After we broke a plate, he started being mezalzel in der chusan and de mechitunim behind their backs and even in front of the Kallah! And that's the way he continued in the tekufah of the chassunah, Sheva Bruches, and the first seven or eight years of my marriage.

Nuhr Vooos, Ich hub gehat a gevaldige madrich, and a gevaldige ratzon and gedild....

The first couple of years were real Gehinnom, but it paid off at the end, because over time she came to realize that be'emes her father is just a bitter person, whose "shittos" have wound him up nowhere in life, and is a rachmunis because chutch he could enjoy the Yiddishe Nachas which he could get from his einiklech and doesn't have the sechel too? Und vehr vet em eppes zuggen?

LvK:That's the peleh!

She really does think so.

She hasn't got the foggiest clue as to my issues.

She just thinks I'm depressed by parnassah issues and my father's machlah and petirah (which be'etzem are connected).

The truth is that I knew all along that she has my Shvigger's p'nimiyus, just that my Shver was the one who the kids in the house idolized, and my Shvigger was the adorable doormat who he could let everyone walk all over her (not that the kids are chutzpahdik to my Shvigger, chalilah -they know that she's a nisht stam Tzaddekes, but they think that she's a Tzaddekes and my Shver is the one to imitate...Chapst? Not only that, my wife knew that my Shvigger's easygoing and accepting nature is what allowed my Shver to take advantage of her and treat her like a shmatte -so she decided that when she gets married -Zi Vet Ehm Shoin Vaizin de Veg...Farshtaist?). And once Hashem helped peel the outer layer of shtissim away, the Tzaddekes in my wife shined out in full glory!

Reb B: Nice to see you here.

De Challes by inz zennen shoin arois fin oiven and arain in freezer (my Rebbitzen says that they stay fresher that way).

Ich hub gedarft aroisnemmen ah gantze possom tzu machen platz!!!

Self! Pity! Me!

Choolilah!

Self Hatred?

On occasion?

L'hitpareik?

Hail Yeah!

Toss some possums, Kick some boxes, Scrape some roadkill, and polish it all off with some Woodford!

Don't worry ChaimH, Reb Bards'll shlep me out of Atzvus by the peyos -he even taught me the ten kappitlach and my Shvigger's Daughter will eventually crochet me a funky white yarmulke which will be embroidered with the anti-self-pity mantra:
