kedusha??

om- gosh... with all that teumah in the states, I hope he gets out alive.

worse yet.. I hope he does not get the shopping bug and come back with tons of shoes or other things which he has no use for!

(There is a story about HaRav Kaduri tz"l, when he went on a fund raising tour in America, he said the teumah smelled so terrible there he could not even daven - and canceled his trip and came back to ISrael)

Please let him tolerate the tum'ah long enough for me to meet him in person, though....

he may be coming to within 'meeting distance' in one of his schleps around this country. If I meet him I'll try to wear a british beafeater Royal Guard outfit so he won't recognize me till he hears something bizarre come out from behind the fur. He'll then say, "that must hacve been dovish!" and we'll take it from there...just having too much fun with this.

PS. Trust me, mouseleh, there are a hundred reasons for each of us to be jealous of you being able to be with you!

Too many other threads get sidetracked... ;D

...but more the rest:

:-*

WE LOVE THE HEILIGER GAURD!!!

:-*

:-*

How many people in the WHOLE WORLD would do as he does? Leave his home to travel around the world. Why? For what? What does HE stand to gain personally? NOTHING! He is not on a grand world tour to meet thousand of adoring fans. He refuses to divulge his name. He refuses to let us meet him, to express appreciation in person. He refuses to take credit for his work. He is doing it for us!!!

And yes, Rabeinu Guard, we love Hashem most of all! :D

Posted by our new family member; 'Shnooks'.

She's rocking the womens forum as well as shamayim!

14 days ago i felt trapped, darkened, and dirtied.

14 days ago i was someone who voluntarily tore her Neshama apart and couldn't stop.

14 days ago, 14 hours was too long.

14 days later and i am free, my heart beats lighter, my soul is flying, and i am armed with the knowledge that i am a good person.

thanks to GYE i am learning to see a person in the mirror, not a monster.

thanks to GYE i now smile and laugh without being ashamed.

thanks to GYE i can be give chizuk to others and not feel hypocritical.

thank you GYE for recognizing a problem and acting upon it and not sweeping it under the rug, not acting like there weren't thousands of Neshamos screaming inside of shattered broken people. thank you for giving us the tools to clean our Neshamos, to rebuild our selves into human beings and Yidden, for leading us on a journey back home to HaShem's loving arms.

GYE, you have given me back my self respect and you have done even more than that. For the first time in my life I have found somewhere where I can put my whole self out there- my story, my life, my struggles and downfalls, every bit of it, and still feel unconditionally loved, while getting the exact Chizuk i need.

GYE, for the first time in my life, I feel safe.

Thank you.
