Ok fine!!

You all win!!

If that Brocha was unnecessary because it was a given, I will give him a different Brocha.

May our wonderful Guard be Zoche to see only Nachas from all his children for many generations. May they marry Yirei Hashem and raise beautiful families Leshem Uletiferes. May he live to lead all those he has helped to greet Mashiach - Bimheira Biyameinu!!!

Is that better? :D :D :D :D

If you read this Brocha, and feel the same way, just post a resounding Amen, and may it be Mekooyam!!!

Umein!

Parshas Kedoshim:

V'im haleim yalimu am ha'aretz es eineihem min ha'ish hahu. (20:4)

Rabeinu Guard min hatorah minayin?

V'im haleim yalimu am ha'aretz es eineihem, If the people guard their eyes; It all comes min ha'ish hahu, from that man. It is due to him and to his eternal credit!!!!

P-a-l-eeeeeeze.

I just work here.

(The Boss hired me, and He pays my salary too)

Woops, sorry for commenting on this "locked" thread. I just couldn't let this pass, it's a bit of an affront to my Boss.

In addition, I note with tremendous gratitude to HKB"H, to our dedicated Guard, and to the entire GYE community, that today marks two years clean for me, b'Ezras Hashem, and with the help and through the Zechus of GYE.

With great love and friendship,

Kedusha

It certainly hasn't been easy, but it has been so worth it - I never imagined life could be this good! A big thank you to the founders of this site, Dov, and all of the other great people that give up their own time to give Chizuk to others. You have truly enhanced my life more than I could have possibly imagined and I can never thank you enough.

Hatzlacha to all!

(Yes I left out Guard on purpose).

Guard is not either around much anymore.

He may have a VERY good reason for being too busy. But the fact is that he hardly posts. (I don't fully believe that his being soooooo busy is the only reason why he doesn't spend much time here anymore. I think he became bored of this forum.

Wow did I enjoy that.

Dear Reb Guard,

First, thank you a gozillion times for what you have done for my own life, enabling me to go from darkness to true light.

As the great religions of the world come unraveled, the one with it's terrorists, and the other with it's child-abusing clergy, you have begun to sew up a great rift in the fabric of our eternal nation. Your reward is as immeasurable as it is eternal. May your success continue to grow until all of Klal Yisroel are cured. I truly believe you have done as much as anyone in our generation to hasten the geula shlaima.
You Rascal!!! >

Wow! You have done great things!

Alex

Today is the first of June, Sivan is starting in a few days. There are billions of women in the Northern Hemisphere who are putting on their revealing summer clothes for the next few months. This happened last year too.

There are hundreds of Jewish men who are going to guard their eyes much better this summer than any other other summer in the past. This is all because of the heiliger Guard.

THAT IS WHY WE ALL LOVE THE HEILIGER GUARD!

Calm down, Dov. They do not have so much power over us. Just learn to surrender the lust one day at a time and keep your knuckles pink and relaxed.

Who am I today? I am an inspired man.

When I walked through the streets of Boro Park for the first time, I was overwhelmed by the sheer weight of Jewry - the multitudes of JEWS. It was amazing, coming from a significantly smaller community, to see so much Yiddishkeit. So many shuls, Yeshivos and of course Judaica/Food/etc. shops. Here were so many Jews going about their business.

When I first saw Yerushalayim, the masses of Jews at the Kotel praying together, I felt my heart lifting, feeling as if I was where I belonged. I felt history, presence, togetherness. It was a wonderful experience - here were so many Jews going about their business.

When I first found GYE, I felt very drawn - here was a site for people struggling through what I have been through, and still go through. But here is something special - it is not Jews going about their business. It is people going beyond their boundaries, pushing themselves, succeeding, and more importantly failing over and over and over but not giving up (so it can hardly be failure)! "Heroes" is too corny a word for this site. How often does one get to walk amongst those fighting a war and seeing the victories? Walk through a Yeshiva - is it any comparison? Rarely.

GYE inspires me in areas other than the obvious. It has inspired me to look at myself and change in tangible ways in my Yiddishkeit, just from the basking in the presence of such people. You are all wonderful.
