There goes my Gaava again.

I try to keep him in his doghouse when he starts tugging on his leash.

Thursday Coorsday

Drambuie Friday (who said it has to rhyme?)

If it doesn't have to rhyme then please shelve the ~~water~~Coors on Thursday and pour me something worth drinking.

Fin mein zeit we can do Woodford all Week

Although having missed the deadline for duty-free in the airport (after holding two enticing liters of Woodford in my hand!) I had to make due with what was available on the plane...

Luckily they had some Johnnie Walker Double Black on the plane for a decent price, so no Slivovitz Shabbos for the Durdayavitches for the next couple of happy months!

Anyone know where to get some Woodford here in Eretz HaKoidesh?
