Mishpacha magazine this week had a piece from Yonason Rosenblum about our site. He even went so far as to print the the site address and part of Rav Feldman's letter. BUT he the put the domain name as .com and not .org

I guess Hashem still wants us to be a secret.

my fiend once re-arranged the letters on the magazine cover to spell MACHSHEFA

then he wrote a few topics for his cover in the same font as theirs, it was a real vomit-inducer, he put it in the shalach manos
