Can anyone recommend an addiction therapist in Manhattan? Non-frum preferred.

Welcome NHN! Nice to meet you!

Have you checked out GYE's Therapist Directory?

In the meantime, this very forum is full of amateur, frum (sorry?), addiction therapists been-there-done-thats, including many people who have slowly pieced (or are piecing) their life back together after being stuck in the gehinom of lust addiction for years. And we don't charge a cent!

Seriously, though, tell us a little about yourself. We are happy to help if we can!
