

Handbook emails

Posted by Gabe - 08 Jan 2010 03:30

Hey,

I signed up for the daily handbook email and unlike the other two daily email services, I haven't been receiving them.

Are you not sending them at the moment or am I just not on the list?

Thanks,

Halevi

When you sign up for the email service, there are three categories you can select.

1) Daily chizuk

2) Shemiras Einayim

3) Handbook (basically excerpts from the handbook are emailed daily... or at least they should be)

Yes, sorry guys. I haven't been sending them lately as I am re-doing the handbooks a bit... You're the first person out of the 950 people signed up to actually "ask" why they aren't getting it? :D

Haha no worries, guard. You must be one busy guy.

The daily emails are one of the best features of this website and are a great chizuk for me. They help me focus on the task ahead.
