

Pump up speech/Battlecry for coming zman

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 19 Aug 2009 15:33

My beautiful most holy warriors:

This is it.

We are nearing the end.

The last stretch.

We have all spent the last bit preparing and purifying ourselves for this moment.

We have been strengthening our connection with our loving Father in Heaven.

The world hangs in balance as we speak, my friends.

The yetzer hara and the satan have been slowly taking hold of much of the world we live in.

They have been poisoning minds and taking down people left and right.

Hashem has thus decided that a new group must be formed.

This group is trained by the holiest men, and consists of some of the world's holiest most fiery souls.

This unit I speak of is elite unlike any we have seen in the longest of time.

A group fueled and inspired by love and courage.

This unit of the most elite warriors is of course GYE.

Until now, we have been growing with each other, fighting powerful relentless persistent battles.

Now it is time to go out and fight our King's war.

Some of us will be heading to the Batei Midrashim, our remnant of the Beis Hamikdash.

And though we might think our voices will only be heard in the nearby area, we are way off!

There is a microphone by our shofars. And this microphone plays our sweet music all over Hashem's beautiful world.

The trees in the Amazon forest will dance with love and admiration for Hashem and his warriors.

The birds above the mountains of Switzerland will be doing flips in the air when they hear the sweet sounds that are shaking and reverberating throughout the whole world.

And in Eretz Yisrael, the beautiful magic of the country will only heighten above the level that words can describe.

We are Hashem's most elite unit!!

We are Hashem's pride and joy!!

Our yeshiva buildings are fortresses of kedusha!!

Our arguments put a smile on our Father's face!!

Our tefillos go straight up to the highest places!!

If only we knew, my friends.

If only we really knew...

For those of us who are finishing our vacation and heading back to the business world, things can be much tougher.

You cannot always be in the fortress.

But Hashem is walking alongside you through your office.

He is sitting next to you on the subway and bus.

He is constantly giving you the warmest of hugs.

He is sending you out for the simplest of reasons:

The kedusha and love of G-d you all have attained is tangible. It is obvious. It is clear.

And it is contagious.

Fight His battle!! We have faith in you. And more importantly, so does He.

He would not send you out unless He knew you would succeed.

The same goes for those heading to university or college. For those who teach and for those who spend the day at home with the kids.

Hashem brought us here. He collected us, all of us, from the corners of the earth to bring us together to be His special battalion.

And it is that way for a reason.

Our battle is affecting every part of the world!

My dear friends,

Do you know who we are?

Do you know who we are??!!

DO YOU KNOW WHO WE ARE???!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

WE

ARE

G

and we are ready for action!

Uri,

Now I will be fully honest.

This is the Uri I see even after you had a pork sandwich with extra cheese.

I know that this is the real Uri & that's why it hurts me sooo much when your go into this monster mode.

You are the Uri we see in this post, anything else is the devel trying to bring this great neshomo of yours down.

Shteig Away

E.L.
