

HOW DO WE ADDICTS UNDERSTAND THIS GEMARA?

?? ????"? ??? ??? ??????? ??? ?????? ??? ???
?????? ?? ????? ?????? ??? ??? ??????? ?????? ??? ??? ??????? ?????? ??? ??? ??????? ?????? ???
???????? ??????
??? ??? ??? ??? ????? ?????? ??
??? ??? ?????? ??? ?????? ?? – ?????????? ?:

I have difficulty understanding this Gemara as an addict.

1. This Gemara claims that as long as we are 'oseik beTorah' we will overcome our natural desire to lust.
2. This Gemara claims that as long as we 'rotseh' - 'have the desire to' - we can control our natural desire to lust.

These claims don't seem to apply to the sex addict - as we all know that simply sitting and learning all day is not going to cure us of this disease, and ALSO - as much as we truly 'desire' to rid ourselves of this disease - that's not going to simply make it go away.

I just have a real problem with the fact that Chazal don't have a real solution for the modern Sex addict - isn't the Torah supposed to be a Torat Chaim?

Surely Chazal were wise enough to know that if you are addicted to something - that there are underlying psychological issues that need to be addressed - and that it's not enough to simply learn Torah?!

I have no problem with the 12 step program - but if Torah is supposed to be a manual of living for a Jew - how can it not include a solution for the addict?!

Does anyone feel the same way? Any thoughts, comments?

One could say that an addiction is not the Yetzer Hora. The YH is a malach which gets us to do things, an addict does them himself.

by himself, by looking at inappropriate stuff and so on, ?????? ????"? ?????? ??? ????? ?? , for that you need special treatment, the torah is no longer enough, you need help dirtectly form hoshem i that this is simliar to the answer from BB. Addiction is probably the ????? ?? ???.

??? ??? ????? ??????

Without derech erez, no matter how much Torah you learn, it won't help. In fact, I think the kabbalistic sefarim warn that, until a person has perfected his middos, then the Torah he learns actually fuels the sitra acher. (Also, Torah is compared to water; it will only help grow whatever you've got planted--if you've got weeds in your field, it will make those weeds grow). But, ????? ??? ?????, ?? ?????

I have found that the root of my addictive nature is that my middos are messed up--self-centered, egotistical, etc. When I work on that (which is a major part of the program of recovery), my obsession with lust becomes MUCH weaker.

Has this been at all helpful?

Hoshem says ????? ??? ??? , the yatzer that hoshem created, the genarel yetzeh hora of the normal person, ?????? ?? ????? ??????, the torah will handle it. just sit and learn and you will be ok.

Just to set the record straight: I am not the Satmar Ruv of London Shlita. I didn't make up what I said either, I heard it somewhere.
