Hi,

Im in desperate need of a good learner, who would take his time maybe once a week or even more to learn with me. I am really struggling in numerous different areas and believe learning will help me ! I have been in yeshiva for many years, but still have a hard time with the translation, you would have to be patient but I can promise you that learning with me will be

Tell me a little more about yourself !!

I would love to make a chavrusa with you !

Maybe we should chat more over private messenger..
