I saw sonmewhere that pesach sheni is reminder for us that one maybe ???, or ???? ??????.
never the less he has a second chance.

& I had my second chance when I found hebrew GYE about 10 month ago & another second chance when the hebrew one became not accesible from my computer & I got into here. (i do try to go to hebrew one at night from another computer but it's hard & i don't always have the time for it)

The people that were tamei didn't just sit there wondering to themselves "lomo nigrah -Why should we loose out"

They went to Moshe and said lomo nigorah

Feeling bad is one thing. Doing whatever you can is something else.

Sometimes it's simply expressing our feelings to someone we trust.

...and that can create new realities

When they complained to Moshe "Lomoh Nigorah?", Moshe said. "Stand by and I will hear what Hashem will command for your sake". Rashi comments on Moshe's greatness, that he was so confident that Hashem will reply to him. But the Divrei Yechezkel (Shinover Rav zt"l) asks, how indeed was Moshe so sure that Hashem will respond? And he explains that Moshe understood that when a Yid really wants to serve Hashem in spite of his lowly situation, Hashem will surely grant his request.

Gevaldig!

I "think" therefore I "am". (see Kiddushin 49b)
