

LIKE A DOG WHO RETURNS TO HIS VOMIT...

Posted by byebye - 11 Jun 2018 01:47

There is a pasuk that says :

"Like a dog who returns to his vomit,

so too a fool returns to his foolishness"

a dog eats something , and then throws it up, then he sniffs and starts to eat it again, so too a fool does a foolishness, gets disgusted with it, and then goes back and does it again!

a good moshol for us guys who act out ,get disgusted ,and then do it again!

a picture is worth a thousand words I saw a great picture from gye that says it all !

Very nice.

Speaking of repetitive foolishness, can you please stop changing your username? It makes it hard to keep track of who says what. (for me at least)

Just today alone you've changed your username to:

anothertime

Unterthenet

chaiml

changin

gettinincontrol

shnitzelandkugel

And before that you've been:

byebye

gyegye

hihi

There's probably others I've missed. It's difficult to take anything you say seriously when you keep playing this username shtick...

ok, the gig is up! youre too smart for me l.b. ,im going through a minor identity crisis, trying to figure out who i truly am.BTW, im not gyegye,im sure hes a nice gye though,and hihi i told one of the admins why i had to change it at that time, it wasnt a problem it seemed since byebye wasnt around at the time,and hihi is his polar oppisite ,i thought it was a no brainer who i was at the time of posting.im seriously thinking of keeping username s.a.k.
