

reference list of relevant Gemoros

Posted by Ykv_schwartz - 18 Jun 2009 19:36

The purpose of this thread is to create a list of relevant gemaras that pertain to the yetzer hara, inyanei zenus, and any other related gemaras. Anyone who has sources should post it in this thread - WITHOUT ELABORATING. This is a thread just for sources. With the help of Hashem we will be able to elaborate on the sources in another thread.

My goal is two-fold. Number one, to create a reference list for those that want to delve into these topic. Number two, to summarize the basic principles that are derived from all the gemara.

Below you will find an incomplete list of gemoras, by daf. These were gemaras that I have been reviewing over the past few months during my months of recovery. I tried my best to outline the basic principles of each gemara, with few exceptions.

Succa 52a

1. The more you give in to the y"ח, the stronger it becomes
2. The greater you are you, the more challenging the y"ח is.
3. The seven names of y"ח(this will take a while to explain)
4. Hashem 'regrets' creating the y"ח (This is a very deep yesod. Behind this teaching is the secret as to the purpose of the y"ח)
5. Both tzadikim and reshaim will cry when they see their yetzer hara.
6. The y"ח wants to kill you.
7. Using the Torah to fight the y"ח [this is a very deep yesod and has never been properly addressed on the forum. One of the basic questions is why doesn't it always work.]
8. Without Hashem's help, it is IMPOSSIBLE to beat the y"ח.

9. The more one feeds his sexual desires, the hungrier it becomes.

Kiddushin 20a

1. Repetitive aveiros are harder to break because we become desensitized. (This is one of the most fundamental gemaras in terms of understanding the potential danger of addictions. It also reveals how to properly heal oneself from addictive behavior. This was one of the most powerful gemaras for my recovery)

Kiddushin 30b

Beating the y"ch with Torah and other goodies.

Kiddushin 40a

1. Unbelievable stories of people who were ready to kill themselves rather than commit arayos [the Gemara 81a says that these people BECAME chasidim by the fact that they stood the test]
2. Repetitive aveiros get punished for the thoughts
3. What to do when faced with an uncontrollable urge.

Kiddushin 81a

1. Beware: Everyone has the potential of becoming powerless to lust, to the degree where in the time of nisayon can lack complete control
2. If a person has a nisayon and cannot extinguish the urges internally (even if he is maintaining a certain level of self control by holding back) he should use external means.
3. A person should be ready to do ANYTHING to protect himself from sin, even if it means making a fool of oneself.
4. Remember: It is better to be shamed in this world than in the world to come.
5. Do not belittle someone else's nisayon.
6. With the merit of Torah one can be prevented from sin.

7. Temptations start from the eye.

8. Do not incite the the y"ח (this is a rather esoteric yesod. The maharal gives a beautiful explanation that it means do not try to beat the y"ח on your own, it will only anger the Y'H. Only with using the help of hashem one can succeed.)

9. Daven to Hashem to remove/destroy the y"ח, meaning ask him to remove all temptations.

10. Even if you feel no temptations, even if you are an old man, keep davening.

11. Daven to be SAVED from the yetzer hara.

Avodah Zara 17a

Rabbi Eliezer ben durdei (see maharal in nesiv hateshuva who explains every detail)

Berachos 5a

What to do when faced with a nisayon (four step process)

Berachos 17a

The yetzer is labeled as sourdough (Understanding the principle can really help a lot in terms of identifying the y"ח)

Berachos 20a

One needs to be afraid of the y"ח in terms of refraining from entering into a situation that may lead to lust [even for good intentions]

Shabbos 34a

1. Punishment for those that engage in lewd discussions (???? ??)

2. Punishment for those that tend their hearts to Aveiros (precisely lust)

Shabbos 64a

1. Bnei Yisroel needed kapara at midyan because they had hirhurei aveira.
2. Bnei Yisroel needed kapara at midyan because they derived benefit from looking at women of midyan.
3. Deriving benefit from even a small finger is like makom turfa

Eiruvין 63a

Is it better to fight the yetzer hara head on or avoid him and wait for it to simmer down (based on meiri's interpretation)

Nidah 13a

masturbation and related topics

Jack, that is what all the other 8 boards on this forum are for. But THIS board is strictly for Torah Chizuk, since some people haven't reached real levels of addiction yet, and even if they have, there are some people who this type of Chizuk helps. So like you say, "vus is shlecht?" Being Moisif Kedusha is NEVER Shlecht...

And remember, no debating on this board, as in the rules I laid out over here. All debates of this nature can be done on other boards, particularly on this thread, where Boruch just posted an amazing post (reply #69) in line with what you are trying to say Jack! It was so powerful that even Bardichev agrees now!! ;D

no one is wrong we are just trying to keep a debate free zone here.

plus the list of gemaros looks daunting ykv and I and hopefully others will Give shiur on them in the near future

the first shiur will be on the topic

Succa 52a

1. The more you give in to the y"ח, the stronger it becomes

i.e. the more you feed it the more you need it

I hope ykv will be the maggid shiur stay tuned

Ykv,

This is a great!

I am blown away by how much effort you have put into attaining kedusha. In your zchus, Hakodosh Baroch Hu should give us chizuk to overcome all our issues.
