Thank you Hashem for the strength you gave me not to turn the slip in to a fall!!

I love this thread!! Let me just add some insight - what does "Thank you" mean? What are we

I once heard that thank you comes from the german word "denke" - witch means to think. Thank

So when thanking hashem or any person really, we are saying: "I'm thinking of you, realizing that this good comes from you" (By the way, the Chinuch explains that evry "baruch ata hashem" is a form of thanking) comes from think. (I double checked online)

Thank you Hashem
