

holding on

Posted by cleanup - 21 Jul 2011 13:49

Hi my name is Cleanup. I have been on Shlomo's night calls since December. Baruch Hashem I really grew a lot since then. I let go and let G-D. normally I don't have much access to the forum or my GYE emails because Baruch Hashem I have accountibility on my computer. The last couple of days have been rough. I am talking to other guys on the chevra and begging Hashem to take care of it for me. I hope and pray it stays good.

Welcome to the forum Cleanup!

Sounds like you're plugged in and have good support, and know how to stay clean. The summer months are extra challenging for many of us. Lack of regular internet access is a guteh zach! Chazak! Go into the upcoming teshuva season on track for an aliyah!

Hey Cleanup -

Why don't you allow GYE and add it to a whitelist on your filter. On all websites you can go to I can think of few others that deserve more to be on a whitelist.

Maybe e-daf.com or yutorah.org

GR8 idea to add GYE to my white list. The problem is the one looking at my stuff will know. its a long story I cant afford that. But HASHEM is helping me in many different ways. One of them is YOU! TY again. We're going into the weekend, with extra challenges. May Hashem be with us all hi Cleanup and welcome to the forum,

i think i knew you in camp...

every day there was time for cleanup

corny jokes aside, i wish you the best and continued hatzlocha

re: white-listing GYE, maybe you can say that the summer is hard for shmiras einayim (i think so too) and there are great tips and chizuk on GYE. you don't have to confess to being a ruthless

have a great shabbos
