I'm also a failure! About 14 years ago I realized I was a complete failure at withstanding and beating this problem.

So?

I got help. The right help for me.

And here I am, still unable to beat it - but I got freer and freer...and it's been over 14 years getting freer and staying clean. I am still a failure. I didn't beat anything. I have a sticker on my back that the YH can read - it says: "Yup, you beat me!? So?" But I am clean all this time nonetheless.

And I am the one smiling all the way to the 'bank' of the good life all this time. Life has been great and getting nicer all the time. And I still have the sticker on my back as I walk past the YH.

Want a sticker, too?
