

Hello guys I fail again i need help...

Posted by Happyme0 - 07 Jul 2012 09:23

I have gone without porn and masturbation for 5 or 6 months straight... I need help this Satan is very strong its really hard i know how u guys feel too i feel the same way... Im trying to quit like quit no more. But i can't let it take over me i need to stop... I need to not take it for years and years i need to stop! i dont want it for years on end its going to be my accountability on the Heavenly court next year i got 1 year left before i have to be quit forever... im not an addict but im failling like one...

Happyme0 , a gitte woch.

Apologize me, but i am not sure what you meant. could you clarify following things? :

Im trying to quit like quit no more. But i can't let it take over me i need to stop next year i got 1 year left before i have to be quit forever and one more thing...right NOW, are you still in your 5/6 month sober-streak or did you fall ?

Hatzlocho, and hashem ya'azor lecha

I feel for you my man,

I will tell you that you have to stop fighting, try working on not wanting it. What do you get from it anyways? All it does is take you for a ride and when your done you wake up to reality and see how you got nowhere. Try to think about how you feel after you fall, before! During a test think about what's gonna be after its over, will this really make you feel good? Or is it like a guy thirst at sea who drinks salt water?

Good luck, were all here for you don't give up!

And keep going!

And keep posting!

And chew with your mouth closed!

....

Ya!

Sincerely,

JKG

Dear Happyme0,

It's Dov and I want to ask how you are doing today - if you want to PM or even to talk on the phone that's fine - if not, that's fine too. But why not reach out and say haloo? So here I am, chaver.

My friend if u did it that long u can do it again don't get down on urself but use that pain to cry out to hashem. Know that hashem is proud of u for fighting for that long its amazing u made it that far think about how many never make it past a day or an hour or 5 hours u made it five)))))
