

Shalom

Posted by yirmeyah - 10 Aug 2012 11:36

Shalom,

First of all, forgiveness for my bad English, I speak very badly this language and I use a translation software.

As many I fights(disputes) strongly against zera levatala but falls and a lot I'm fed up. I hope to find here the help(assistant) which I need to take(bring) out of this huge trap.

I am French, and in my country there is no site on this problem, I am thus obliged to come here, even if I does not include very well English.

Toda raba for this site!

Welcome!

There's an Ivrit forum [if you understand Ivrit]:

www.guardyoureyes.com/heb/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=43&Itemid=57

And a French site: guardyoureyes.fr/

You can post but it's very important to read what others say, so try to read whatever's available in french and whenever you feel like you need some real conversation, come in here and I' [along with the others] will give you a warm GOOD SHABBOS and a [virtual] hug.
