

In need of survival

Posted by bochur613 - 21 Mar 2013 01:48

Hi Guys I have been a 'member of the heilige GYE now for some time, however I have never posted a message.

My position right now is one of annoyance, I have blocked out access of the internet and have been clean for nearly two weeks B"H. However I am finding that every day I am stumbling and just clinging on by the skin of my teeth. I feel that I can't last like this for long and sooner or later I will fall and have to start again.

Please can the oylam give me some needed advice??

Hatzlocho to all of you incredible yidden and a groisse shkoiach for all the chizzuk I have received from everyone on the site.
