Alot has hapened over the past 2yrs & im at the point in my life were i NEED to get better. i was looking to get hold of some reading material like the white book & 12&12. i am currently in lakewood if anyone knows were i could get them it would be a big help. I've been to both barnes & nobles in the area with no luck. I also saw a book about the jewish approach to the twelve steps written by a reform/conservative rabbi I was a little nervous about buying it, anybody here ever read it?
