I had a hard time figuring out what to write when i came here.

Here are a few suggestions on what to ssay.

So just answer these question in your essay (the score is from 1-6 and you have 20 minutes.DO NOT go to the next section until directed to by the test moderator.)

When and how did the problem start?

What is the problem?

Did anything significant happen since the problem started? (getting caught, telling someone, an epiphany etc.)

Did you have any particularly good or bad times along the way?

How did you find gye?

What's your plan to help yourself?

waiting to hear from you.
