the think that is so beautiful about your initial post is that those 82 clean days will stay with you forever... eternity... no one can take that anymore away

wow what a milestone

I am so happy for your 82 days, and your excitement to start again

I, on day 19 here, am petrified, however....but that is the atsas hayetzer and I and we must remove that thought from our mind the 90 day goal is excellent, but the larger goal is "in the moment."

keep smiling and keep truckin" oops...I forgot about gibbor's correction on the top...so I misread your post the first time gevaldik! keep it up!

what are you doing that's makin it work?

b'hatzlachah
