

A Journey Without a Name

Posted by unanumun - 01 Apr 2014 07:34

here goes. after spending all day on the site, i downloaded k9 filter for my laptop. (my office has a filter and my phone has the browser blocked and my wife has the code)

i now signed up for the 90 days. I hope it is not too soon, but I think i can do it. i think that all the support everyone gets and gives around here might be enough.

i have nothing to lose i guess (I really want this to work) and I am feeling very optimistic. and having all my new friends know what is going on with me will probably be great for me.

Does anybody think I am making a mistake and going too fast?

Can there be a downside?

Gee. What a eureka moment,

I have been here eight months and i just realized today that if you click on the spoilers there are hidden messages. I feel like i missed out on half of the gye experience.

Tell us please....

How did you realize?

What was the feelin' like?

Did you wanna do it again?

Think you can stop?

Are you addicted already?

There are programs out there to kick the habit.

We are here to help.

hey una,

be careful, you have started the road to the secret society of gye forum users, who live in a secret dimension, beyond the bounds of terra firma.....

zemmy, ssshhhhh. The oilam is gonna start to notice I haven't been around too much.

Cordnoy,

It all started by clicking on the wrong thing. I was a bit curious and then I really enjoyed the feeling. First I clicked again and again, then I did a search to find more things to click on, and now I am hooked. I can't wait for the next opportunity, and can't hold myself back when the possibility comes up.

I am starting to wonder what this SA business that everyone is talking about really stands for.

Perhaps indeed it is Even after eight months, I still gotta take things one day at a time.

No real chiddush, but it is different when it is you.
