Hi everyone I'm back (go figure) anyway I was wondering on getting peoples opinions on something, what do u find are the long term effects that p has on you? Meaning Ive read that people aren't as attracted to real women eg: their wives, after this because the high of p and the sheer amount of hours we watch a natural high just cant compare, do u find that to be true?

Firstly, welcome back.

Secondly, I lookin' forward to the day when I can be concerned about 'long-term-effect,' and not the 'short-term-effect.'

Thirdly, what are your feelin's?

Fourthly, Some of us still harbor wants, desires, stuff, etc. from our wives that we have seen in the past.

Additionally, somethin' on the street or another vision can certainly trigger a memory.

Lastly, what the hell is the difference?

We gotta live the life in front of us at this moment, and we gotts live it in the best way possible.

Hi MC,

I definitely lose my sensitivity because of the fantasy high that I am used to from porn. I would elaborate in a private email. I feel uncomfortable discussing this in an open forum.
