Wow! Such a big achievement. Don't stop now. It's only a number amidst a whole lifetime of battle with the yetzer hara. Take it one day, week, month at a time. Congrats! KOP

Awsome stuff! Thanks for sharing!

Nothing like some success.

Be prepared for rough spots though.

It's always one day at a time.

Mazal Tov! I'm big on milestones myself. However, it is highly recommended that "one day at a time" remain the mantra of the recovering addict.
