

Hi

Hello

I'm known as Fred

I have been getting emails for 2 years

I have had some great successes as some great failures

When I first joined I was working with a forum but it disappeared or I lost it in cyberspace

A couple of recent failures made me think I should try again wit the forum

Hello again and good luck to all

Fred

Hi Fred,

Successes always outweigh failures....what are "failures" by the way?
