

Gratitude for the opportunity to give

Posted by yiraishamaim - 10 Sep 2015 21:58

Hi Guys! It's been a while.

The year is about to end and I would like to at least express a little hakaras hatov to the the men who have taught, guided and supported me for over 300 days.

Truthfully, from all the gifts I have received from the forum the one that stands out and that I am most appreciative of, is the opportunity we are given to assist others. To help another improve in an area of life that just a short while ago I was so profoundly a failure is a thrill beyond belief.

Thank you from the depths of my heart.

I must admit I am so envious of people like The Guard who are behind this holy organization. To have put together a venue where Yidin come together in pure achdus, to improve themselves and each other, in the very area of life that is the foremost challenge of our times is a zechus that cannot be measured.

May Hashem bless all of the participants of this wonderful organization.

I once learned that Hashem considers in his judgement what group(s) a person is associated with.

How fortunate are we to have the full spiritual backing of The Forum of GYE.
