

New to GYE

Hey everyone in new here. I've been having masturbation and pornography issues for 6 years now but have only begun attempting to tackle it for one year (where I grew up it was weird or "unhealthy" if you weren't masturbating). I'd really appreciate all the help, I really just want to succeed

Welcome welcome! you came to the right place!

I can't imagine how hard it is to come from a place that promotes such kind of stuff and come out to do the right thing. (frankly I didn't know the world promotes this)

May Hashem carry you through this.

Hey Joe, welcome to the club of going "against the grain" of your nature besides being the unique one of going against the grain of your surroundings by doing so!

Welcome! Where many of us grew up, not masturbabating was considerered the ideal, but we did it anyway. If I may ask you a question which you can feel free to ignore if you wish. Regardless of what people think, here or there, do you think what you are doing is healthy and why?

Hatzlacha!
