

I'm back

Posted by depkahuna - 11 Dec 2015 23:46

Been gone for some time. Oy, I need help. I did good with this program once before. This time I need to stick with it. Thank you.

Welcome

Did you write about your story then?

What changed in between?

B'hatzlachah this time

Welcome back. Maybe when you are doing well again you can stick around and help others. Sometimes help is needed leading or helping with the reading in the calls. Maybe you can step up to the plate. Helping others has been shown to help ourselves.

I would say welcome back but I haven't been here too long myself.

How did you have success in the past and why do you think you started struggling again?
