

Comparing my body to others

Posted by didannotzach - 06 Apr 2016 05:26

Hi, I am 24 years old man and I am not married yet, I want to get married soon, (I am going to get straight to the point and be clear what I am going through. I don't mean in any way to use words for wrong reasons I just want my point to get across clearly, I hope it's understood) my issue is, I am very self cautious about the size of my penis and i feel that I have a very small penis, smaller than what I see my friends in the mikvah, I am worried that when I get married my wife will not be happy with my penis size and maybe my sex life will be bad and not exciting I think my penis is less than 6 inches, and I think that is small. Does any one have this issue? Or is it just me?

A therapist told me that "size" is not what creates a healthy, enjoyable, sex life. The pornographic industry has developed the opposite notion but it is not true.

Does any one have this issue?

I haven't measured mine - so I don't have your issue

Warning: Spoiler!

End of conversation

Or is it?

Here's my tiny question

"sex life will be bad and not exciting"

How's sex life these days?

I'm not sure what you are asking me.

I never had sex before

DING! DING! DING! DING! (no dong, sore topic)

That is exactly the point. You have no idea what sex will be like.
