Welcome!

You've come to the right place.

With Hashem's continued help, you can make major changes by using all that GYE has to offer.

Did you read the Handbook yet?

Welcome!!!

Have you read the GPS in my signature?

KEEP ON TRUCKINGGGGG

Some people treat their "my foot" with 12 steps

So your new name is

"My Frock"

Welcome again!

Hey I gave you the shortened (GPS) version, although the handbook had some perspectives and details that a short version can't do justice to

KEEP ON T-ROCKING

Rectify?

Can't help you with that.

Welcome!

The Handbook may be long, but that's the nature of recovery. Don't expect any tricks which will change you overnight. I think it's safe to say that for most people what has helped them most is internalizing new and healthy attitudes and perspectives. This is something you come to after a lot of reading, sharing and thought.

Hatzlacha!

I came to GYE for instant gratification..

I want to truck, and I want my fix now

Oh well, I guess I'll read 2 pages in the handbook, better than nothing, oh! Right! I see it can be

Shucks

From my own experience,

It's not that I don't have the time to do it.....

usually the reason why I don't do something, is because I don't find it important to me.

If there is a will there is a way.

best wishes

This brings up a murky memory of Dov posting somewhere about how if we spend half the time on recovery as we did on lusting we'd be doing great. (or he said something similar, or he didn't day it at all).

Anyway my foot, (your foot? what's the correct way to address you?)

Welcome and keep on posting!

Your foot exposed you to all that? That's unusual! Sounds like quite the experience!

Welcome to the club. Look at the name I chose when I signed up to this site almost 4 years ago!

would you choose the same name 4 years later ?

It's actually encouraging as Skep has explained previously, that he had this name, and nevertheless has stuck it out on GYE formidably for soo long.

KUDOS and KARMA to him!!!!!!!!!!!!
