Hi Posted by Searle - 20 Jun 2016 06:31
A brief intro about me:
I've been married for a number of years with a few kids. My wife and I have very different backgrounds. Further to that, I have a strong physical drive, whereas my wife is the exact opposite and also has tactile defensive issues, which further adds to the challenges.
This makes this area even more challenging for me. I work in a corporate environment where ironically I see woman dressed more provocatively than I do at home.
I look forward to hearing from all of you and the experience you have gained overcoming challenges in these areas.

Nope.
Initially it was just mikvah night.
It was only after gaining proper perspective that it was switched.
