

Saying hello...

Stopping by to say hello to everyone...I'm here in Cincinnati, Ohio I want to give thanks unto Hashem for inspiring & giving me the courage to reach out to the program. I'm Afro-American married with two beautiful girls 21 & 20 also I have a son who is 10. Getting to it...at 13 I began to venture into inappropriate materials my older brother assume he had hidden from me. We all know the rest. So I'm here today at 41, fighting with everything to enter the Lord's Holiness. I deeply cherish Israel & the Truth in which it was founded upon. I believe in what is written that a man cannot serve Hashem fully unless his house is in order. To accomplish without I must accomplish within. I want to be whole...peace to you all.

Welcome to gye.

Stick around, tell us a bit more about your struggles if you like.

Has anything worked in the past?

What are you doing to stop now?
