Welcome,

You have a good will, but you need to work a program and have patience.

Have you read the Handbook?

Sorry to say but it takes time to break free.

For some it means fighting for the rest of their life. I can only tell you that it's worth.

best wishes

Welcome

It takes a long time for many to admit they're an addict. You are way ahead of the pack already

KEEP ON TRUCKING!!!

Welcome! I know the roller coaster well. I was on it for over 20 years. The "trick" is to avoid getting into the situation of "when i have a taava to..... " as much as possible. In the heat of the moment, almost nothing will help. Stick around. Read the handbook. Keep posting. Check out some of the links in my signature.

Welcome to gye,

Like dt said, this is something that can take a while to make very serious headway. The main thing is to keep coming back and getting up. Then slowly but surely you can make progress.

Hatzlacha!
