

It's about time

Posted by KedushasLevi - 26 Aug 2016 04:11

I just wanted to say hi to GYE and to all the wonderful chashuva people on this site who are truly making a difference in this challengin world of ours.

I just joined GYE...and it's about time as I've been struggling with this issue for way too long. This is a huge step for me as I'm naturally shy and have a difficult time exposing anything, let alone this sensitive issue. Even writing this post is difficult and unnatural for me, but b'ezras Hashem, this should serve as a small "issarusa d'Isatta" which should im'h cause an "issarusa d'l'eila" as well.

Thank you to all the wonderful people who give so much of their kochos to acheinu b'nei yisrael.

Kol Hascholos Koshos -- and unfortunately in this area every day is a new hascholo, even to those of us who may have seen much hatzlocha in the past. May the ribbono shel olam help me b'soch shaar b'nei yisrael.

Welcome to GYE,

There is no pressure to post anything, if you want to then great, if not no one will force you, take your time. For now i'd advise to look around at the tools GYE has to offer.

Good luck on your journey,

360gye

. Oh well.

This is a great place with some great people. Keep posting. We look forward to hearing more from you. For many of us, opening up was the first BIG step we took towards recovery. It can be a bit scary at first, but it gets easier.

Thank you all for the chizuk. It's truly amazing what a few words of chizuk can sometimes do - a tremendous chessed.

B'h I have completed my first full week here on gye and I just came back from a vacation where I was careful about what I looked at and what I thought about.
