Hello and gut moed everyone!

I'm very fortunate and honored to be part of this and in the same group of the strongest people in the world!

I've struggled with watching porn and touching myself inappropriately since I was 17. I'm turning to gye and you all for support and courage and I'm looking forward to reaching the big 90 and beyond!

I welcome your comments, tips and thumbs up!

I'm at 37 days, and the day I signed up, I didn't think it was possible. Stick with us. You'll get there.
