Hi

I am Jacques Im 16 years old and I struggle with pornography, and it is consuming my life , even at such a young age. I have tried lots of things to stop with my struggle then I found this site, I have high hopes for this . I am also a Christian with lots of respect for Gods bride that is Israel,but I am part of Jesus Christs bride. This sin is breaking my relationship with God.

I hope that you wont mind that I am not Jewish and still help me with my struggle.

Kind regards

Jacques

Welcome. I fully support you in your journey, and I have definitely been where you have also. Being that this forum is primarily Orthodox Jewish you might not understand or be able to relate to everyone and everything. But there have been people who found success even if they weren't Jewish or Orthodox. I would encourage you to focus on the similarities and not the differences. You may also want to speak to your religious guide and see if there's something in your own faith tradition.

Regardless, I wish you much success. You are a brave man for starting this journey at your age. Most teenagers aren't that strong.

Welcome!

We are here to support you fully. Please just keep in mind that this is a Jewish site and refraining from mentioning any other deity/spiritual guide/animal helper/horcrux will be very much appreciated!

Surf through and find articles, words of encouragement and practical tools. Enjoy the journey!
