hi this is tzomah now that i'm getting alittle used to this one week maybe ican open up as akid my parents were a little messed up lots of screaming and fighting and i would soothe myself by mastrubating and playing with myself while fantasizing about any girl i happened to have seen that day or my 2 cousins i did this from when i was akid almost till i got married feeling guilty all the time except if i was learning really well and connecting to hashem i would sometimes be able to hold off for the most a month but at times i would go crazy and have such strong urges that i did quite some crazy things to get my fix after i got married i stopped but inow realize that i was really using my wife igot obsessed with her and her sexual abilites or lack of and being from a closed home she didn't know much and i expecting who knows what mainly that she be and act like a fantasy i tried controlling myself but really i was subconciosly manipulating her to be some one else and for atime it worked like 2and ahalf years until her compulsive issues came out and then i realized she wasn't even capable of fullfilling the fantasy then ibasicaly collapsed and slowly got in to the internet before you know it porn for a year till one week ago i decided enough is enough found gye and am trying to kick this compulsive habit this is the first time i am making a real confession so any comments or chizuk would surely help as i get thes compulsive feelings when i turn around and see a hot girl i also start feeling guilty about how prust i can be great news here

after listening to dov's workshop for two weeks i started seeing how much resentment i have especially in marriage so i went out with my wife one morning to talk to her about things and we started really connecting finally i just blurted everything that for the past 2 years i have been struggling with porn and lust b"h she took it really well she told me she knew something was going on and she is relieved i am doing something about it i felt this week like a huge load came off my back and i was flying for the past 3 days with out any lustful thoughts but i wont fool myself i obviously need to continue working on this with listening and reading the forum daily because this is what is working for me it just took a huge pressure off of me that makes it all that easier thank you hashem for such an understanding wife that is bloak underappreciates

Good to hear, it takes a heavy weight of the shoulders if the person you live with knows about it. I hope it continues that way.

please explain the question cuz it seems no matter what people say here there is always someone asking them what are you doing about it as if there is some trick you gotta do or else your not doing anything and to say i am TRUCKING doesn't mean i am doing anything your wife is relieved that you're "listening and reading the forum daily"?

you didn't share anything else...

no my wife is relieved she aint the only one with problems and i told her openly i realize how i made her feel like that for the past two years she told me that she knows me and she knows i would do something about this in other words she trusts me should she i hope so i don't think i am an addict she knows and i know when this became a real problem the 1st 5 years of marriage i didn't masturbate or watch porn we are married 7 years i also told her what i have been doing for the past year in other words i spoke to people on the phone i email people every day and instead of watching porn daily i fell 3 times in the past 3 months and it wasn't after many hours this past week was the cleanest week i had in the past 2 years so i'd assume something is working i don't i need to analyze what that is would like to share a great story i heard in the name of r' shalom schwadron that he knew someone that struggled with shmiras einayim then this man lost his eyesight so his friends told him at least one problem is gone the man answered you don't understand till now a girl was a girl and a bush was a bush now every bush is a girl.....

the rebbe milublin (chozeh) was once saying all his chisronos and how he is on a low madreigah etc and he doesn't know how he is going to stand in front of the kisei hakovod his talmidim told him not to worry they will come and say witness to his greatness and high madreigah he answered that is very nice but then they will turn to me and say itzik'l and what do you hold of yourself.....

I'd like to politely disagree.

If you are content with falling here and there as long as you're not falling daily, if you are content with being so-so, if you're content with having a pretty good relationship with you're wife, then by all means continue what you're doing.

But if you're looking to really come clean and really distance yourself from these behaviors, I think analysis of what works and what doesn't work is quite frankly exactly what you need to be doing.

Sharing this stuff with your wife was an awesome step. For me personally, I find that opening up with someone who you respect and care about is liberating, and it feels amazing. Sometimes I wish I could reproduce that feeling of liberation. But if you want to continue to grow, and why shouldn't you, Don't settle for so-so. Don't assume that you have done enough. I think there's so much that you can gain by learning about what triggers you and what works for you. There is so much to gain by just educating yourself about the nature of what it is you're fighting against.

Keep us posted, b'eh you will have a ton of growth in these areas.

thank you

i will clarify i meant if something is working i definitely will continue doing it and other things also i just don't think it is necessary and can maybe self destructive to pschycoanalyze every last thing why it works it is often enough to acknowledge that it works and keep on moving but definitely not to be complacent for example talking to hashem helps why it helps is a great philishophical disscusion that many people myself included love to have and then they do nothing the main thing is to do what works not have information although it's important lo hamedrash ikar elah hamasseh it took me a long to time to realize that and i still need to work on it as for an update the last 2 weeks have been totally clean b"h meaning no walks (cruising) no youtube

no movies

keeping my eyes off women in the streets why i am in touch with people from gye one person live (lifesaving) i have backup phone numbers in case of emergency i started using my wifes computer only (it is slowly becoming mine) and life is great like this thank you all it's because of you

Maybe it's not necessary, but why would it be self-destructive?

Also, just pointing out that if your wife's computer is slowly becoming yours, then it will lose the

Happy to hear that you're enjoying the sober life. Thats awesome.

advantage of being your wife's computer. So be careful with that i think it is self destructive to get stuck in your head it is great to analyze to an extent but if you can't stop it may cause you to run for a fix of the great escape your right about it has the advantage as i don't know the password it is definitely awesome to enjoy the sober life
