Hi, im 17 and about two years ago there was a while that I watched porn, since then I have been moitzei zera very regularly. I also really njoy speaking about sexual matters and would often try to draw my friends into speaking about such things. Last week I txted 2 new friends in my yeshiva trying to bring them to disscussing these bad topics. Somehow word spread and my mashgiach found out what I did. I had tried speaking to him earlier for advice on how to stop being moitzei zera so he knew what I had watched in school. As soon as he heard about those txts he sent me home for therapy. My therapist suggested I take a look at this website and that I put this blog in. Hoping to stop asap as the current situation is extremely embarassing because half of my yeshiva have found out about the txts. Can't wait to hear back from u guys:blush:

Hey buddy how is it going

What does kit mean?

do you mind posting that last post in your teens only thread (the one from everchange) here there is something in there that rubs me the wrong way and i think others might have an opinion as well

thankx

Is this the one you meant:

What I said above is still applicable. You need to make a neder that every time you are mzl you will give $20 to tsedaka. The reason for the high kenas is because mzl is punishable with karet and I don't think karet is the same price as $20. For every inappropriate sentence you tell your friends you should give $5. You have to trick your brain into viewing these things as bad and costly instead of the good that your brain thinks you receive from them now. These kenasim will help you, but don't give up because most people have to go through this.

Secondly, you should frequent the mikveh. The mikveh will help you clear your mind and heart from the tumah and will help you grow.

Hatzlacha! Keep us updated

Also, if your friends are not religious or are a bad influence you will need to tell them that you don't want to talk about these matters with them or you will have to distance your relationship with them.

wats the problem???

nope i don't text at all really yes that's the one thanks: this line particularly going to the mikva might be nice or not but where does it say anything like this and is it guaranteed?? I'm sure the poster is just saying what works for him, personally it means nothing to me and i try to go erev shabbos (for the neshama y'saira thing) but that's it.

also i think this is talked about at length in this thread Tikun Haklali & Mikva.

Another point about the Taphsic thingy

?I don't remember where I read this (maybe markz or cordnoy can quote it) but there are those that strongly feel that if it doesn't help after trying it once (maybe twice) ditch it

sorry that it seems like the embarrassment is looking like it is not going to be easy but we are here for you

Really getting chizuk from the great attitude keep it up

Nice New pic.... why??

I dunno about mikva, personally im only a 2 day mikva jew, maybe I should give it a try more often....

I will let you know how the embarrassment goes when I get online after going back 2 yeshiva, I actually discussed it today with my therapist.

happy 2 b giving you chizuk!!!!!! Isn't that the main point of this furom????
