What you're doing is great. Many guys didn't start working on ?????? ?????? until they were a bit older (at least). This got them more into the habit of lusting, making it much more difficult to be in control when they finally decided to start being in control. If you take care of it now, you may never appreciate what that does for you, but not knowing what it's like to be a slave to your desire is a good thing.

?????!

Welcome (one more time!)

I'd hate to think how many seemingly innocent little boys running about in my community are getting into the same kind of trouble that I've gotten into. It's a scary reality. May Hashem bring them all here!

Hi bb0212 (OMG what an interesting and creative fake name), I like your straightforward way of writing and happy for you to be here w us knuckleheads.

Continued hatzlocha!

I'd like to ask you: 1- Since the day you hooked up w Breslov and started learning their info about not masturbating, etc, has your actual frequency of masturbating yourself decreased, or has it increased? And 2- Do you think that you think about and struggle with not masturbating or using porn more often since you first started learning their ideas, or less often?

Thanks for your candor, chaver.

- Dov

Thanks for the info, I really haven't paid attention to OP's for the ~9 years I've been posting here, but it bears remembering!

Does this mean you will respond to the questions I posed you, elsewhere?

Not sure what you're saying. The questions that you asked seem to be directed at the OP of this thread (not me). I never really hooked up with Breslov. But if you have questions for me, ask away and I'll answer in the same thread that you ask it, assuming that I follow that thread. The best place to get me is at one of the threads in my sig.

Perhaps we've all breslov'ed at one point or another.
