hi yakov or whoever will read this.

?i grew up in an abusive atmosphere my mother would beat me, i was bullied in school and one of my rebbeim picked on me and got my whole class to laugh at me. i was in therapy for the resulting problems for quite some time. i still see a therapist from time to time. at one point for two years i was taking meds a generic for Zoloft. that's my emotional history.

as for the kedusha problems I've been masturbating now for 13 yrs.. i have spoken to numerous rebbeim who tried to help me along the way. they weren't really equipped to deal with me. eventually i discovered porn but baruch hashem i always had limited access. i still have relapses in porn which are hard to get out of. i'm now married bh and i have a daughter bli ayin hora. please help not sure how you'll contact me my email is mikefineroth@gmail.com (not my name and i don't know anyone with that name)

hope we'll finally break free

Givaldig!!!

I pray many times each day, it usually goes something like this: "God, I want to lust and drink in the view of these body parts, I know it's not good for me but I cannot stop, I'm totally ready that you should take away the temptation from me and keep me sober, as you can do for me what I cannot do for myself, so please keep me sober and let me find in you what I'm looking for in these body parts". What should I tell you, it works if I really mean it!

A beautiful version of the second look prayer, thank you!

Mike, Wow! Such gevura. We can only imagine the simcha in shomayim that in 2017 a healthy man had the strength to look at the floor despite having the ability to drink in such a lustful sight which he really wanted to enjoy. When Moshiach comes it will be guys like you standing in front of the line to greet him.

Hi Mike. Hope everything's well, sorry to hear your predicament.

Just curious, is it possible to walk a different way? It probably won't make your lust evaporate, but it would might help your anxiety.

i'm lusting right now like crazy noones around and i have at least three different ways to feed my addiction for starters i left a message by my mentor later he'll check up on me so i'd better not fall (he reads my thread too) additionally i'm posting here that 1. takes time (time not spent acting out) 2. it'll help me feel good when i pull through that's how i plan on overcoming this nisayon hatzlacha
