

This is me.

Posted by eliwillwin1 - 24 Mar 2017 04:31

I am here to once again commit to trying to gain self-control over my bad sexual habits. The new GYE welcome video is actually all about ME, but let me personalize my story so that I can hopefully get the support that I need to hopefully break free. I am BH married with wonderful young children and I am also lucky enough to have a decent job in my career. However, like the guy in the video, I have a dark side. I won't get into the details here.. because my dark side is too dark for this forum... I had a small period a few months ago where I made it 87 days without any lustful behavior, so I know I have it in me to overcome. Anyway, my wife just got home,... I will be back again in a few days.

Wish me luck.

Welcome,

Everyone1 thinks that their story is the darkest of them all.

Whatever, recovery should be with hatzlachah

Welcome! I read several "too dark for the forum" stories, but only one was actually too dark.

It was mine, right?

What's the measuring stick?

Welcome! I doubt that your dark side is too dark for this forum. You can share in a way that doesn't get too graphic. Either way, it's nice to have you with us. Take a look at the handbook. Check out the "dov quotes" link in my signature. Keep posting.
