A little bit about myself I am 40 Chasidish Happily married B"H I have no smiras ainayim problems but being that my wife has a Chronic Disease/and emotional issues which she is being helped for she is rarely up for intimacy so as to not have to make her feel pressured for intimacy I have opted for masturbation instead which helps me relax when I want to be intimate with her approval.

?I have browsed this site a few times but never thought of taking the plunge but I decided last week and said to hashem I take upon myself to not masturbate and in that zechus he should take the koach of my zera and give it to a friend of mine who has been married for 10 years with no children and give him children.

Clean for six days!

Warning: Spoiler!
