

Hello

Hi,

b"H

Hello, I am 36 yo male, live in Poland, married, and blessed with a son who is 15 mo. I am struggling to break free of my internet porn and masturbation addiction, which has been around for years, and because I am trying to be observing judaism (i'm learning for conversion) this is something that is completely against the spirituality and growth...

I often have periods of freedom that can go on for weeks, I grow, I study Torah I do great and then suddenly I slip. Like a nissayon to hard to pass..

I'm researching some internet filters for now (iphone and pc), but not sure where to start. I did buy an e-book called SMART recovery handbook, which is quite informative. Haven't dug deep enough yet thou...

Anyways, glad I'm here. Feel embarrassed a bit.

Great day to everyone!

m.
