

Struggling Addict

Posted by eli613 - 27 Oct 2017 04:29

Hi,

I'm back on the forum, although it's been a while and I forgot my previous username. I have been a struggling addict for many years. I tried all sorts of things to stop my addictive behaviors but every time I thought I had it under control, well you know how it works... I recently started to join SA meetings and I feel like it's going to be very helpful. I am very serious about learning the 12-step program and obtaining abstinence. I am looking for a sponsor or a temporary sponsor (I would be willing to pay! if that's even a thing) that at can help me get started with the 12-steps. I'm very desperate. I don't come on this site often enough, but I will be back in a few days to check my emails.

Everything else in life is great! Great Wife! Great kids! parnasah, Boruch Hashem!

Thank you.

Hi and Welcome back our friend,

Happy to hear that you are taking serious actions of recovery.

Regarding what you wrote about willing to pay for a sponsor. Anyone please correct me if I am mistaken- as per most or all 12 step groups there is no such thing as a sponsor for pay. We give freely what we have been given for free. I think this is a core point of the 12 steps and 12 traditions.

Welcome back! I would recommend joining Dov's phone conference. Hatzlacha in your 12 step program.

Thanks for welcoming me back. My indication of paying for a sponsor was just my way of expressing how desperate I am to find a sponsor. I don't sign on very often but if anybody can point me in the direction of finding a sponsor, I would really appreciate it. Thank you!

Most of the time, good sponsors are found by meetings.
