

First timer

Posted by Yosef321 - 11 Feb 2018 15:49

Hello all,

I have been referred to this website by my Rebbi, I am currently married with one child and have been struggling with the issue of shmiras habris for too long and have decided it is time for me to take care of it. As I'm sure most of you know when fighting the battle alone it is nearly impossible to outsmart the yetzer harah. It is for that reason that I turn to this wonderful group of individuals with the hopes of becoming clean.
